

7.2 Step 1—Submit an Initial Monitoring Plan

For each affected unit, an initial monitoring plan must be submitted at least 21 days prior to the start of the certification testing of the monitoring systems. The monitoring plan identifies the overall monitoring strategy for each unit. The plan must contain sufficient information about the monitoring systems to demonstrate that all of the regulated emissions from the unit will be measured and reported. The monitoring plan consists of two parts: